Alexandria, Va., Sept. 6.-State Senator ander J. Wedderburn, of Fairfax, candidates for the Democratic nomination for Lucas. the State senate, presented their respective claims to the voters of this city this evening, at a mass meeting held in the Opera House. Chairman Charles Bendheim, of the city committee, presided, and introduced the speakers. The auditorium was well filled, while the galleries con tained a large gathering of ladies. Both speakers were liberally applauded

Senator Machen, who was first presented by Mr. Bendheim, asked the people to carefully scrutinize his record as a elect him for a second term if his course in that body won their approval. He said that it had been the custom in this district to return senators for a second term if they desired it. He trusted that his if they desired it. He trusted that his to go away with him, and that in the course in the assembly had not been such dark he mistook Van Gosen for Barnes. as to lead the voters in this case to dis regard the usage.

Mr. Machen explained his position on several public questions. He declared him self in favor of the reduced railroad rate premulgated by the State corporation commission. He expressed the belief that Onancock Riot Trial Has Unusual the courts would uphold the authority of the commission in the matter, but in case of the contrary decision, he advocated the adoption of measures by the legislature to make the findings of the commission in Jurist Declares Troops Unnecessary the premises imperative. He also declare in favor of a longer session of the legis lature for giving due consideration to al questions coming before it. paying his respects to Mr. Wedderburn Senator Machen related a number of an ecdotes at the expense of his opponent.
